

Global Trends in Coaching: An Evening with Katherine Tulpa - CEO Association for Coaching

The Association for Coaching (AC) Queensland are delighted to welcome Katherine Tulpa, the Global CEO of our Association, to Brisbane. On the eve of the QUT Coaching Conference, Crossing Boundaries, where Katherine is a key speaker, the Association for Coaching Queensland Branch are hosting an intimate opportunity to meet Katherine and learn from her connections and conversations with coaching practitioners, developers, and organizational leaders worldwide. This will be an opportunity to hear from Katherine, a thought leader in the field of coaching, who is proactively supporting and connecting our community with coaching practitioners, developers and organisational leaders worldwide

When: Thursday, 21st November 2019
5:30 pm start - 8:00 pm finish. AEDT

Where: The Brisbane Club
241 Adelaide Street
Brisbane, Queensland
Australia

What you will learn

- Global trends in coaching
- AC's aspirations and contributions to the field of coaching

Price

Member Price $35.00 Non-Member Price $ 65.00

NOTE: All QUT Crossing Boundaries Conference delegates are offered a discounted price of $35. When registering please enter code "ACVIP" to activate this discount. Please note that this discount is only valid for QUT Crossing Boundaries Conference delegates.

Speaker Bio

Katherine Tulpa

A dynamic and inspiring leader, Katherine is the Co-founder of the Association for Coaching, which started in the UK in 2002. She also runs a successful board-level international coaching business, Wisdom8, specializing in coaching CEOs, executives, and top teams in some of the world's leading brands. With over 10,000 coaching hours as a Global Coach, Katherine works internationally across the UK, Europe, USA, UAE, and Asia, developing leaders from across 38 different nationalities. She is an author in three coaching books, a speaker, lecturer, coach mentor and change consultant, and sits on two editorial boards. Her commitment to the profession is recognized by her peers, including receiving the 'Coach Mentor of the Year' award by Coaching at Work, two AC Honorary awards for 'Influencing & Impacting the Coaching Profession', amongst others. Her purpose is to see coaching ripple across businesses, and make a bigger impact in the world, through building global communities, and promoting a coach approach.

To register, please go to <https://www.associationforcoaching.com/events/EventDetails.aspx?id=1293266&group=>